

Queen's College

Yearly Review on School-based After-school Learning and Support Programme 2013-14

	Income	Expenditure	Evaluation
(A) Approved allocation for Sept 13 to Aug 14
a. 1st phase of allocation from Sept 13 to Mar 14	$17,500.00
b. 2nd phase of allocation from Apr 14 to Aug 14	$12,500.00
(B) Expenditure for school year 2013-14
a. Subsidized one S1 student to attend S1 orientation camp		$200.00	He had a lot of fun at the camp. He had developed the communication skill, time management skill as well as leadership skill through engaging in different group activities with his S1 schoolmates and other peer counseling prefects.
b. Subsidized 7 students to visit Ocean Park		$560.00	They widened their horizons as they were able to see a wide variety of animals they had not seen before. Moreover, they learned about the importance of protecting the rare species,
c. Drama training workshop for S3-S5		$3,200.00	They learned a wide range of skills in the drama training workshop, including vocal projection, clarity of speech, and so on, and enhanced their confidence in speaking English. Overall, they became more interested in drama.
Unspent balance			$26,040.00